

MOLINEUX GETTING FAT IN SING SING.

Has Taken on Twenty Pounds in Three Weeks in Death Cell.

Roland B. Molineux is getting fat in Sing Sing Prison.

Although he has been an inmate of the condemned cells three weeks Molineux has gained twenty pounds—nearly a pound a day.

He weighed 135 when he was taken to the prison. To-day he tipped the scales at 155. He laughed when he learned the tale the scales told, and jokingly said to Warden Johnson that Sing Sing was the greatest health resort he ever went to.

It is not merely a question of weight, either. All pressure of care and worry seems to have been taken from his mind. He sleeps like a patient enjoying the "rest cure." His eyes are bright and his complexion rosy. He eats with an appetite which would do credit to a woodchopper, and he enjoys himself, apparently, during his waking hours.

It is true that he lacks the glow of the companion of those who used to pace the solemn beat in his company in hours of exercise. But he makes shift to get considerable exercise in his cell space and paces back and forth by the hour.

Molineux was fast asleep this morning when his breakfast reached the cell. He got up good naturedly and ate abundantly of breakfast, eggs, rolls and coffee, then turned over and went to sleep again.

His wife and his mother make daily pilgrimages to the spot overlooking the prison, from which they send down their prayers and sympathy. He knows the hour of their coming, and, though not Motorman Hill Ran Over and Killed Bertha Ingold, Then Jumped in River.

The body of Motorman Hill, who escaped from the police last night after killing a woman, was discovered in the river near the old ferry in West New York at sunrise this morning.

He either committed suicide in despair over the accident or in running to escape arrest plunged headlong into the river.

Motorman Hill's car was running at full speed down a steep grade in West New York. It was about 5 o'clock. The headlights flashed upon a woman walking slowly on the tracks.

Motorman Hill pounded his horn to alarm her. She apparently did not hear, or, at least, she did not heed. The motorman piled the brakes with all his strength and shut off the power from his car, but in an instant the car was upon her, and she was beneath the wheels.

Motorman Hill and Conductor Griswold sprang from the car as soon as it came to a standstill, ran back along the tracks and found the married remains. Her head was cut completely off.

When the police came Motorman Hill started to run. A policeman pursued him, but he disappeared in the darkness and was not seen again until his body was discovered floating in the ferry slip this morning. It was not recovered, but soon sank. The police at once began dragging for it.

The dead woman was twenty-two years old. She carried a bank-book showing that she had a deposit in the Bank for Savings, at Fourth avenue and Twenty-second street, in this city.

She visited her relatives in West New York yesterday afternoon and was on her way home. There was no sidewalk and she was obliged to walk on the railroad tracks.

YOUR ATTENTION IS DIRECTED TO Two Special Lines SPRING OVERCOATS

Which We Now Place ON SALE AT THESE VERY LOW PRICES.

Oxford gray Vicuna Spring Overcoats, cut in the "top notch" of fashion, superbly tailored, mohair serge lined, with rich satin sleeve linings and velvet collars. These coats would be extra good value at $12, but we are prepared to sell a thousand, and therefore say $8.50.

THEY WERE NOT MUTES.

The customer looked into the barber shop apprehensively, hesitated and then slowly stepped inside, removed his hat and overcoat and took a vacant chair proffered to him.

"Mute," he said, incoherently, "I have heard that you are a first class barber."

The barber fixed his chair to the right position and commenced to make fresh water.

The customer looked around the shop. Two

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1930.

Challenge Sale---Last Day.

To-morrow the great Challenge Sale comes to a close. If you have not yet availed yourself of its remarkable money-saving opportunities, this will be your last chance. And permit us to tell you frankly that we do not expect to duplicate any of the values offered for many a day to come; for, unless chance favors us, and chance can only affect one or two isolated lines of goods from time to time, we can hardly hope to acquire in the present markets of the world goods of standard excellence, goods at prices that would enable us to repeat our Challenge Offerings. We earnestly advise you, therefore, to accept the opportunity while you may.

For the Last Day of the Challenge Sale we offer in Men's Spring Clothing.

For the Last Day of the Challenge Sale we offer in Men's Shoes.

THE WHEELER $3.50 SHOES FOR MEN, in French calf, box calf, tan and blacks, all sizes; Challenge Price, for your choice..... 1.95

As we have already told you, the Wheeler Shoe Company, of West Winfield, N. Y., made the best $3.50 men's shoe in this country. But as there is no longer any money to be made by making such fine shoes at that price, owing to the increased cost of leather and labor, they are going out of business. We bought their entire stock, amounting to several thousand pairs, on the most liberal terms. We have now received the last consignment, consisting of shoes that were not quite finished when we made the purchase. These will go on sale to-morrow along with the remaining unpaired shoes. The shoes are a combination of Goodyear and hand work, and come in all sizes. The styles are all up-to-date, and are better than any regular $3.50 shoe sold anywhere in America. We warrant each and every pair just as though they had cost you full price.

For the Last Day of the Challenge Sale we offer in "Patee" Bicycles.

made by the Patee Rubber and Mfg. Co. of Patee, Ill. Have reinforced steel joints, cast fork crowns, one-piece hanger, changeable, adjustable handle bars, with internal expansion in both handle bars and seat post; rims are striped; cups, cones and all bearings are turned out of the finest tool steel; the chains are the celebrated Indianapolis make, every wheel fitted with Patee $1.00 guaranteed single tube tire, in fact, they have all the requirements and fittings of the most up-to-date, high-grade bicycle, and the finish is handsome. We bought them for a low price, a price that we could not begin to duplicate to-day, and for to-morrow we offer for the last time a choice of men's 22, 24 and 26 inch wheels, finished in green or black enamel, at the special Challenge Price of..... 12.75
